

Senior Year

Black font = college and high school credit

Individual schedules are driven by the individual PCCR and should include a minimum of 20 instructional hours per week. Below is a list of course options that may be included.

Red font= high school credit only

Not all courses are available each semester and offerings can change at any time. SLCC's on-campus concurrent enrollment and early enrollment programs may need to be used to acquire required instructional hours.

*College courses often require qualifying scores or other prerequisites
